

Hey,

Thank you for giving me your time yesterday to talk about health and wellness at the Build22 event. Your energy was off the charts!

We had such an overwhelming response from those who wanted to take advantage of the genetic test opportunity that it broke our system!

I'm excited because people really wanted to invest in their health, but I hated that some people were not able to take advantage of this one-time gene test.

With that being said, the site is back up so if you didn't get a chance to order your 10X genetic test at this SPECIAL EVENT OFFER, now is your time.
